

L L Gentlemen Merchants, and other Persons may please to take notice, that upon Tuseday night the eighteenth day of January 1652. the Letters were sent from the old Post-house (at the lower end of Threedneedle-street, by the Stocks, in London) at the Rates of twopence the single Letter within eighty miles of London, and threepence the single Letter above eighty miles within this Common-wealth (usually sent unto) and so proportionably for double Letters and Packets, and Packets of printed Books, or two shillings the pound, and the State Packets and Letters carried free: And so to continue going forth Tusedays and Saturday nights, and Answers expected Munday and Fryday mornings, as formerly accustomed.

And Letters may be received in for conveyance by the old Post at those Rates at the several places accustomed. V I Z.

At Mr. Bartbolmew Haggets, at the Sarizans Head in Westminster.

At Mr. Robert Genms, the Rose in King-street.

At Mr. Edward Huchins, Post-master; at the white hart at Charing Cross

At Mr. Adams, the Porter of the Gate at the Savoy.

At Mr. Ralph Oldhams, at the Gun in the Strand.

At Mr. William Leakes, at the Crown at Temple Bar.

At Mr. Lawrance Blacklocks, at Temple Bar, Stationer.

At Mr. Abell Ropers, over against Dunstones Church in Fleet-street.

At Mr. Charles Adams, the Marygold against Fetter lane end.

At Mr. John Allins, the white Horse in Fleet-street.

At Mr. Thomas Taylor, in the inner Temple lane.

At Mr. Lawrances.

At Matthew Days, a Porter belonging to Lyons Inn.

At Mr. Richard Best Stationer in Graife-Inn Gate.

At Mr. William Atkins, Stationer at staple Inn.

At Mr. John Places, Stationer at Furnifalls Inn.

At Mr. Thomas Simms, at the sign of the Angel at Riddriff stayers.

At Capt. Grigsons next the white Lyon, by the new stayers at Wapping.

At Mrs. Staltnborgh, Tower-hill next the Navy Office.

At Mrs. Smith next the Cock in Ratlef.

At Mrs. Ivy over against the Gun in Woodstreet.

The Persons that leave Letters at any of these places, are desired to bring them in thither before ten of the clock, Tusedays and Saturday nights; and at the Post-house by the Stocks by twelve a clock.